Bombardier Aerospace Employees Club

BAEC is operated as a non-profit business organized and owned by the employees of Bombardier. Club members pay $2.00 each pay period through a payroll deduction to enjoy Club benefits.

Purchase quality company apparel at competitive prices

Through the Club you not only have access to great shopping but savings and events that are reserved for Club members only.

There are three retail stores on campus. Those stores accept cash, check and credit card payments. Items can also be charged to your cost center and purchasing card. Members are able to write a check for up to $10.00 when they need cash, in two of the three stores.

We carry a wide variety of company gift items

How to Join

To join the Employees Club you must enroll using the Benefits Toolbox. If you need assistance with the Toolbox you can call the local ESC at 946-2372 M-F 7am-6pm.

The blue membership card, presented when making purchases and attending events, proves entitlement to Club benefits. This card can be picked up at the Club store in building 4. It will not be automatically mailed to you.

Contractors and Partners can join by paying the dues quarterly. The dues will be prorated from the date joined and a temporary card will be given at that time.

Lost your card? Stop by any Club location and order a new one. There is a two week minimum lead time.
